CLASS POEM

*When we think of leaving China Grove High,
We think of our four years that have gone by.
We remember these years as happy times
And can never forget the friendship binds.*

*We realize our life has just begun
And know that our battles must be fought and won.
We're proud of our education so dear,
Though we know that a new beginning of life is near.*

*We know that better teachers and friends can't be found,
And we'll try to succeed and not let them down.
As we travel life's road we'll never forget
What our parents, teachers, and friends to us have meant.*

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the Senior Class of 1942, will soon walk out of China Grove High School. All through the past year it has been hard to realize that we are Seniors; but, in looking back, we can say that we've enjoyed everything. As has been the custom, the Seniors will some of their most prized belongings to those who will soon be where we are now.

To our parents we say, "Many thanks for making it possible for us to receive a high school education."

To our principal, Mr. Bivens, we heartily give thanks for his guidance which has aided the development of our character and our education.

To our faculty, we say, "Thank you for all the hard hours you've spent in teaching us".

We leave our appreciation to our faculty advisers, Miss Neely and Mr. Holt.

The following are our small gifts, not only to the Juniors, but to all future graduates of China Grove High School. We hope that the example we have set will be one that you will enjoy following and making better.

Margie Cress wills her blond hair to Dorothy Gentle, provided she doesn't bleach it.

Wilma Lowder wills her personality to Clara Goble.

To Kathryn Callicutt and Bobby Bostian, Sarah Suddeth wills her love for dancing.

Howard Eagle wills his ability to play football to Jack Bame.

To Laura Jo Wilkie and Bernice McCombs, Nellie Bradshaw and Elizabeth Hall will their companionship.

Dorothy Calloway and Helen Freeze will their big mouths to the Seymour sisters, provided they learn to control them better than they did.

To Judith Ann Jordon, Edith Eagle leaves her sportsmanship in basketball.

Junior Earnhardt leaves those credit memorandums in bookkeeping to anyone in the Junior Class who can keep them straight next year.

To Frank Eller and Hubert Benson, Raymond Kirk and Odell Moose leave their very close friendship.

Ray Mault leaves his ability to tease the girls to Hubert Johnston.

Harvey Weant says he has nothing to will but the old bus; so that goes to anybody who can keep it in as good condition as he has the past two years.

To Evon Shimpock, Lois Trexler leaves her cheerful disposition.

To Frank Miller, Ernest Weaver leaves that deep voice and that friendly smile.

Mabel Newlin wills her A's to Tip Albright.

Bernice Bradshaw wills her position as typist for The Trident to anyone Miss Neely thinks will be as good as she has been.

Ruth Smith leaves her shorthand notebook to anyone who can read "Smith" shorthand.

To Jack Melchor, Harold Ray Cruse leaves his friendship with Mr. Bivens.

Bessie Koon and Doris Shuping will their friendship and their double dates to Louise Rary and Margaret Farmer.

Mary Brown wills that ear-to-ear grin to Christine Follett.

To Mary Rose Gillis, Hazel Abernathy wills that friendly smile.

Jack Eller wills his ability to out-talk everybody to Jo Basinger.

To Loma Kirk, Ruby Shoe leaves her place in Glee Club.

Helen Grant wills that worried look to Carrie Louise Safriet.

To Bobby Davis, John Basinger wills his ability to get on the honor roll.

Kenneth Suther leaves his fatness to Peggy Stirewalt.

To Gray Freeze and Manuel Wyatt, Clyde Luther leaves his grown-up ways.

Pearl Freeze leaves her taste for suckers to Leona Shuping.

To Louise Trexler, Helen Morrison leaves her quietness.

Lena Safriet leaves that queer little laugh to Joan Bame.

To Hoyt Safrit, Pansie Thompson leaves her businesslike ways.

Arnold Wessinger wills his good nature to Jack Fletcher.

To Jessie Mae Guffy, Harold McKnight wills his quietness.

Harold Smith leaves his place in the Beta Club to Bobby Wilhelm.

Marvie Livengood wills her late dates to Priscilla Honbarger.

Jimmy Wood leaves his red hair to Billy Lefler.

To Oveda Poag, Earl Patterson leaves that big smile.

Helen Upright wills her record in French to her sister, Joeleen.

George Miller Bostian leaves his record in Band to John Henry Graeber.

I, Ernestine Eudy, want to leave my perfect attendance through these eleven years to Hugh McKnight; and I wish China Grove High School the best of luck in the years to come.

—ERNESTINE EUDY.

GIRL'S BASKETBALL

The China Grove girls came out with a very successful year, winning over twice as many games as they lost. They would have scored many more points if they had not been overpowered by larger and more experienced teams.

Beaver and Wilhelm were high scorers for the year. Jordon also had a good scoring season. Captain Eagle, Honbarger, and Smith did an excellent job of guarding all through the season. Mary Louise Bernhardt was the team manager.

With only a few girls leaving this year China Grove is expected to have a more successful season next year.

BOY'S BASKETBALL

The China Grove Red Devils had a good season in basketball. At the first of the season the Red Devils did not look so good, but after a few practice games they came out with good spirit. The Red Devils won quite a few of the conference games, and would have won more of them if they had not been overpowered by more experienced teams and larger boys. McDonald, and Abernathy were the two most outstanding players on the team, with DeMarcus, Wessinger, and Melchor doing everything in their power to bring up the scores.

The Red Devils are looking forward to a more successful season next year. Only one or two of the players will be from the team by graduation.

The Red Devils played every game with good sportsmanship.

FOOTBALL

The football team started the season with three bad defeats, but with the experience gained they improved rapidly.

The starting line-up was made up of: Fletcher and Grant, end; Luther and Corriher, tackles; Eagle and Wessinger, guards; McCombs, center; Rary, quarterback; Gillespie and Bame, halfbacks; and Grimes, fullback. J. Melchor, J. Herrin, B. Davis, B. Bostian, and Beaver were sub-backs, while line replacements were J. T. Barnhardt, A. Melchor, G. T. Bradshaw, Lowder, Correll, Rector Hatoway. Buell Lowder was the team manager.

*I think that I shall never see
A girl refuse a meal that's free
A girl with hungry eyes not fixed
Upon the drink that's being mixed;
A girl who doesn't like to wear
A lot of junk to match her hair;
Girls are loved by guys like me—
For who on earth will kiss a tree?*

Men are peculiar, just as women have long suspected. For instance, a man who hadn't kissed his wife in five years recently shot a man who did.

*If the right fellow loves her, she's happy:
If the wrong fellow loves her, she's glad:
If nobody loves her, she's desperate:
If anybody says so, she's mad.*

TYPICAL CO-ED

*My saddle shoes are dirty,
There's no powder on my nose.
My permanent's gone with summer
And my ruffled undie shows.*

*My skirt's a bunchy pleated plaid,
My sweater's long and baggy;
I'm hollow-eyed from loss of sleep—
Who said that I look baggy?*

*I pop my chewing gum in class;
I have a cowboy walk;
I turn handsprings on the campus.
Oh! Boy! Do people talk?*

*There's just one blot upon this life
Of comfort, rest and ease—
Why don't I date like other girls?
Are boys just hard to please?*
